Narrative	On August 13th, 2024 at approx. 1400hrs, I was patrolling the bus bay area when I noticed a person sleeping with a blanket wrapped around them at bus bay D4. When I approached the person, I tapped their feet and tried to wake them up to inform them that they were not allowed to sleep in public(winston salem city ordinance). The person then kicked at me in an attempt to get me to go away, so I went around the wall and tried tapping them on the shoulder. He then acknowledged me by uncovering his head and cussing at me and telling me that he was tired. He proceeded to cover his head back with the blanket and lay back down. My intent was only to get this gentleman to sit up and not sleep on the property and so that I could verify that he was intending to ride a bus. Because of this gentleman's unwillingness to cooperate, I felt it necessary to attempt to use a "sound pen" to gain the gentleman's attention. This worked rather well and was able to open dialogue between me and the gentleman enough for me to ascertain that he was not waiting for a bus, then asked him to leave the property if he was not waiting on the bus, which he complied. Nothing further at this time.
